

1660.

WESTMINSTER.

SIR,

Friendly society being a meanes to preserve unity and beget amity; You are therefore desired to meet with other Gentlemen your Countrymen born in the City of Westminster, at St. Margarets Church, there to heare a Sermon on Thursday the 11.th day of October, 1660. at Nine of the clock in the Morning, and from thence to accompany your Stewards to Westminster-Hall; bringing this Ticket for your admittance, paying the Bearer two shillings and six pence, and indorsing your Name on the backside of it, with the place of your abode, for the ease of your next Stewards,

Francis Doubleday.	}	{	William Hodges.	}	Stewards.
Richard Stanlake.			Thomas Nason.
Thomas Butler.			Nehemiah Arnold.

